Executive Department, North Carolina,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, Nov. 27, 1862.
General Orders, No. 23.
I. PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES having deemed it necessary to call into service all persons liable to military duty between the ages of 18 and 35 years, the Commanding Officers of the Militia will call out for inspection and muster into service of the State, at such times as Colonel Peter Mallett, Commanding Officer of the Militia, may direct.
II. The enrolling officers are promptly to report to Colonel Mallett the names of the persons enrolled between the ages of 18 and 35 years, and all good citizens who prize liberty and independence are earnestly invited to assist in bringing out all such to their regiments. The brave and patriotic soldiers will not be overlooked when the time comes for distributing the bounty of the State to the gallant defenders of her rights.
III. All Commissioned officers and Enrolling Officers in the Confederate service, who shall neglect to furnish such a return of the persons enrolled and returned by them as shall be required by this order, shall be reported to the President for dismissal from the service.
IV. All Commissioned officers and Enrolling Officers in the Confederate service, who shall neglect to furnish such a return of the persons enrolled and returned by them as shall be required by this order, shall be reported to the President for dismissal from the service.
V. All Commissioned officers and Enrolling Officers in the Confederate service, who shall neglect to furnish such a return of the persons enrolled and returned by them as shall be required by this order, shall be reported to the President for dismissal from the service.
